POMMES FARCIES AUX PLEUROTTE

APPLES STUFFED WITH OYESTER MUSHROOMS. 4 servings

4 large baking apples, preferably Cortland
1/2 lemon
3 tablespoons unsalted butter
2 Garlic cloves, finely chopped
1/2 pound oyster mushrooms or wild mushrooms, cut into 3/8 slices
Salt and freshly ground pepper
1/4 cup creme fraiche or heavy (whipping) cream
1/4 cup chopped fresh flat-leaf parsley
1/2 cup chicken stock, preferably homemade, or water

Heat the oven to 350F. Butter a small shallow baking dish just big enough to hold the apples.

Cut off the top of each apple about an eighth of the way down. Using a grapefruit knife or melon baller, hollow out the apples leaving a thin but sturdy "cup". Rub and moisten the apple "cups" with the cut lemon to discourage browning, and set aside. Pick over the apple tops and insides. Discard skin and seeds. Chop any apple flesh.

In a large frying pan, melt the butter over moderate heat. Add the garlic and stir until fragrant, about a minute. Add the chopped apple and the mushrooms with salt and pepper. Toss them in the butter over moderately high heat until the mushrooms lose all their moisture, about 5 minutes. Press a piece of foil on top and cover the pan if the mushrooms look dry to start. Stir in the creme fraiche or cream and the parsley and simmer to evaporate most of the liquid. Taste for seasoning.

Sprinkle the apple "cups" with salt and pepper. Spoon the mushroom mixture into the apples, mounding it slightly. Arrange the apples in the prepared baking dish and pour the stock around them. Bake, uncovered, in the preheated oven until tender when pierced with a knife, 45 minutes to 1 hour, depending on the size and variety of the apples. If the apples begin to brown during cooking, cover them with foil. Serve hot.

These apples, stuffed with a blend of apple insides, garlic, parsley, cream and mushrooms, then baked until tender, are a bull's-eye. They could team up with Roasted Pheasant with Calvados and Cream, Chicken in Cider Vinegar Sauce, or a plain roast bird or pork chops. If you like grilled sausage, either a fresh pork variety or blood pudding, it's a love marriage. This recipe is easily halved to serve two.

This month's recipe provided by Mrs June Jones
